DUFF AND FINE ARE WINNERS

Win Decisive Victory In State Republican Primary On Tuesday

Duff And Cooke Lead Primary Vote In County

Results Of Tuesday Republican Party Primary Balloting

Lawrence county split the Duff-Fine and the Kunkel-Cooke tickets in Tuesday's Republican primary and took some of the candidates from each ticket.

In the balloting for the gubernatorial nomination, this county was one of the few counties in the state that returned a verdict for Jay Cooke of Philadelphia. Cooke getting 7526 votes against 7162 for John S. Fine of Luzerne county.

Duff Easy Winner

Governor James H. Duff, running for the Republican United States Senate nomination was an easy winner, polling 9044 votes against 6017 for John C. Kunkel.

It was in these two offices that the split between the two camps was most marked.

For the Lieutenant-Governor nomination upon the Republican ticket, State Senator George N. Wade was an easy winner, polling 5564 votes with an almost unknown candidate Steele Clark of Indiana county polling 3514. State Senator Lloyd H. Wood polled 2911 votes.

Secretary of Internal Affairs William H. Livengood carried the county over Joseph Stack, 5140 to 4536.

William I. Troutman topped John C. Bell for the Supreme Court nomination, 6640 to 6354.

For Superior Court, Blair Gunther was high with 9488 votes as against 3640 for Nochem Winnert.

Former County Treasurer Frank W. Hill was unopposed for election as State Committeeman on the Republican ticket.

The vote in the Republican primary was light, only about 50 percent of the registered vote being cast. It was even lighter in the Democratic primary.

The primary ended a bitter fight in the Republican party, the battling being waged right down to the wire.

Cooke And Duff Win In Mercer

SHARON, Pa., May 17.—(INS)—Complete unofficial returns from Mercer County in yesterday's Republican primary showed voters split their tickets in favor of Gov. James H. Duff for senator and Jay Cooke for governor. The results:

Duff 7513, Kunkel 3809 for senator; Fine 5457, Cooke 6527 for governor.

Excellent Work Is Done By Election Precinct Boards

Members of precinct election boards in the city and county did excellent work in making reports of the count of the primary voting to The News last night. Many of the boards responded with early returns, and The News is deeply appreciative of their services.

As usual, the two boards in the seventh ward, the first and second, were in a neck and neck race to get in the first report.

At 9:08 o'clock last night, just eight minutes after the polls closed, the second precinct of the seventh ward gave The News a report of the same ward gave a report of the same two candidates. As the first precinct had a much larger vote to tally, it was 50-50 on which one got in first.

Many other boards gave The News good reports of progress as (Continued on Page Two)

Travers Wins In New Castle

Named By Democrats For General Assembly

James A. Travers will carry the banner for the Democratic party in the general election for General Assembly, first district, in November.

In the primary election Tuesday, Mr. Travers scored an easy victory over his two opponents, polling 1245 votes. In second place was Joseph R. Hensley who polled 654 votes with Theodore Castelle finishing third with 570 votes.

It was not Mr. Travers' first political race. He has served his party as state committeeman and in 1948 barely missed being elected to city council.

Mr. Hensley just missed election to the General Assembly in 1948, losing by less than 25 votes. He is presently serving as a school director on the New Castle school board.

Mr. Castelle was the only first time he ran for political office and he made a good showing.

Mrs. Robt. A. Taft Taken To Hospital

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—Mrs. Robert A. Taft, wife of the GOP Senator from Ohio, was taken to George Washington University hospital as an emergency patient today.

Sen. Taft, according to his office, called off a planned trip to Cleveland because of his wife's illness.

Taft's office said Mrs. Taft was taken ill last night and was ordered to the hospital for observation and tests this morning.

Mrs. Taft was unable to be present at a reception given by Rep. Bolton (R) Ohio, after the Senator's radio address last night.

Robert Meermans To Attend YMCA National Council

Robert L. Meermans, general secretary of the New Castle YMCA will leave Thursday to attend the national council meeting at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Meermans will represent the secretarial division of the central west district of Pennsylvania at the three-day session beginning Friday.

Mrs. Meermans will accompany her husband on the trip.

Few Contests In Democrat State Primary

Dilworth, Musmanno, Far Ahead In County Vote On Tuesday

Virtually unopposed for nomination, the Democratic state ticket piled up impressive majorities Tuesday in Lawrence county, although the total vote was light.

Richardson Dilworth, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, polled 3469 votes to 761 for Henry Arthur Morris. Clarence P. Bowlers of Reading was a candidate but withdrew too late to get his name off the ballot. His vote was not computed, being negligible.

Myers Unopposed
U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers was unopposed for nomination for a second term and his vote was not compiled.

For lieutenant-governor Michael A. Musmanno ran a runaway race and polled 5278 votes to 1420 for John F. Davis.

Frank W. Ruth was unopposed for the nomination for secretary of internal affairs as were Michael J. Eagan for judge of the supreme court and Roy I. Carson for judge of the superior court. Their votes were not counted, being negligible.

Bond Issues Are Approved In Ellwood

Ellwood City voters proved in a decisive manner Tuesday they want their swimming pool completed and additions made to the facilities of the sewage disposal plant.

By better than two to one majorities they approved a bond issue for $150,000 to complete a municipal swimming pool, bath house and filter equipment. The vote in the nine precincts was 1867 yes and 714 no.

They also approved a bond issue of $175,000 for additions to the sewage disposal plant. This was by a vote of 1699 to 722.

Every precinct returned a thumping majority and there was no doubt of the opinion of the citizens once the boards began counting the votes.

Voting In G.O.P.
Primary May Establish Record

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—(INS)—Final Republican returns in Pennsylvania probably will establish a new primary election voting high today.

The GOP's registration in the state totals 2,862,112 and it appears almost certain that 50 per cent or more of this figure would be tabulated.

Many Bargains Offered
The galaxy of bargains promises to save dollar after dollar for the family budget which has undergone considerable paring over the past few months. The great pro-

Armond Is Named To State Committee

Minor in comparison to the state wide offices, the position of State Committeeman for the Democratic party in Lawrence County saw a bitter factional struggle on Tuesday. Arsen F. Armond was elected with a vote of 2029, defeating the incumbent state committeeman Thomas George who polled 1569 votes. Thomas F. Hanlon finished third with a vote of 1385.

Graham And Neff Named For Congress

Win Republican And Democratic Contest Decisively

Congressman Louis E. Graham, Republican, and State Senator Samuel Gunnell Neff, Democrat, will contest for the 25th district congressional seat in the November election.

Graham (BULLETIN)

MOSCOW, May 17.—(INS)—U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie said today that results may show in two to three months from his talks with Premier Marshal Stalin and western leaders that ranged the entire cold war front from atomic control to the China deadlock in the U. N.

Lie plans to leave Moscow the end of the week after additional talks.

Lie said he has "no reason to be dissatisfied" with his conversations in Moscow. The U. N. official talked not only with Stalin but with Deputy V. M. Molotov, Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky and others.

Lie's tour took him to Paris, The Hague and Geneva before he came to Moscow on his peace mission.

He emphasized at every point and in his statement of today that he was doing his "duty" as chief executive of the United Nations as he felt obliged to do all in his power to end or at least ease the cold war.

The U. N. official also conferred with officials in Washington before leaving for Europe.

Friendly Reception

His statement said:

"I have been received in a most friendly way and the exchanges of views and ideas have been of a positive kind."

White Wins Nomination

Named Republican Assembly Candidate

Robert M. White, Jr., won the Republican nomination for General Assembly from the first district (New Castle) in Tuesday's voting.

Running in a field of five Mr. White polled 2732 votes, defeating the incumbent, James C. Brice, who polled 1658.

Following these two the following results were seen: Harry Clayton Davis polled 1245 votes, Frank Acquaviva 1169 and Patrick F. Cagro 1137.

First Bid
It was Mr. White's first bid for public office and he made an unusual showing, particularly in his home ward, the second. Here he piled up a lead that was never challenged by the field.

He is an attorney-at-law and a former Marine. He was in the battles of Midway and Guadalcanal in World War II and presently holds a commission as a reserve officer.

Either the campaign was a bit strenuous or he decided that staying up for the returns would do no good for he went to bed about 1 o'clock when the election was far from decided.

Mr. Clark polled 1593 votes and Mr. Kovach 1368 votes. The race was a see-saw affair all night until early this morning when Mr. Clark pulled ahead.

This race was of the same pattern as the Congress and State Committee battles in the Democratic party. Mr. Clark had the endorsement of the Political Action Committee of the CIO. Mr. Kovach had the endorsement of the Democratic organization.

Mr. Clark is the chief of police in Bessemer, while Mr. Kovach is an employee of the National Tube company in Ellwood City.

While the General Assembly fight was more or less overshadowed by the state-wide fight, it was a hard fought contest.

Clark Wins Nomination

Named By Democrats In Second District

In a spirited race within the Democratic ranks, Frank M. Clark of Bessemer defeated Martin J. Kovach of Ellwood City for the General Assembly from the second legislative district.

Mr. Clark polled 2409 votes for Mr. White. These figures are unofficial of course, and the official count could change them.

T. W. Navarra of Hillsdale, was third in the race, polling 1215 votes with T. Given Shaw of Plain Grove township finishing fourth with 831 votes.

Ellwood City Decides

The result of this contest was not decided until early this morning. Mr. White ran well in the northern part of the county but in the western end Mr. McCullough piled up some heavy ma-

Coast Guardsman Jumps To Death

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 17.—(INS)—A young coast guardsman jumped to his death in the Piscataqua river yesterday when his car collided with one driven by a superior officer on a toll bridge.

Edward E. Crockett, 20, ignored a rope thrown to him by a companion and was swept away by the strong current.

Witnesses said no damage was caused when the car driven by Crockett, attached to the USS Coulter, collided with the auto of Lt. R. F. Hooper of the Portsmouth navy.

But Crockett shouted "I'd rather die than pay you any money" and jumped his death.

Legion Band Gives Concert

Armed Forces Event On Public Square

Armed Forces band concert was presented by the American Legion band Tuesday evening on the steps of the Post Office building.

The band, under the direction of Joseph Martin, played musical selections from 7:30 until nine with short talks given by local reserve and military personnel between numbers.

Joseph Solomon was master of ceremonies and speeches were given by George E. Hunt, commander of the veterans council; Byron McConnel, representing the Marine Corps Reserves; Master Sgt. Wollpert, representing the Organized Reserve Corps; Chief James Hodge, of the local Navy Recruiting office; Major T. L. Alexander, Army area project officer; and Col. George F. Mitchell, commander of the 229th Field Artillery battalion.

Representatives of the various organizations spoke on the purpose of the reserves and invited the public to join them. Major Alexander gave an over-all picture of the Armed Forces and Armed Forces Week.

Manning Weller, chairman of Armed Forces week, wishes to thank the police of the city of New Castle for re-routing and directing traffic during the concert. He also wishes to thank Postmaster William Hanna for the use of Post Office property, Owen Fox and Joseph Medure for providing the bandstand and the Pennsylvania Power company for the address system.

The concert was well received. Mr. Weller reports, with a good number of persons present throughout the course of the program.

Majorities, Ellwood City was the deciding factor in the race. Had this gone preponderantly to Mr. White he would have won. As it was the boro was fairly well divided.

Mr. McCullough has served two terms in the General Assembly. Mr. White is former postmaster of New Wilmington and until recently was a game protector for the State Game Commission. Mr. Navarra is a railroad agent in Hillsdale and Mr. Shaw is a farmer of Plaingrove township.

ENTIRE TICKET OF GOVERNOR IS VICTORIOUS

hold active support of the Duff ticket.

Duff's own Allegheny county turned in handsomely for him despite a strong pre-election following accorded Cooke by Chairman James F. Malone, Jr., fired by Duff as state insurance commissioner for supporting Cooke.

With all but 23 of the county's 1063 precincts reported, Duff had 84,723 votes and Kunkel 33,926. Fine collected 84,723 votes and Cooke 5,234.

Other Winners

The governor carried his entire ticket to victory while the slated candidates on the Democratic side were nominated without trouble. Lycoming County Judge Charles S. Williams won only a comparative handful of votes in his bid for the gubernatorial nod.

Victorious with Duff and Fine were State Sen. Lloyd H. Wood for lieutenant governor; William S. Livengood, Jr., who seeks a fourth term as internal affairs secretary; incumbent Judge John S. Bell, Jr., for the Supreme Court and former Allegheny County Judge Blair F. Gunther for the Superior Court.

They will oppose in the general election November 7 a slate headed by U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers, who wants a second term; Philadelphia City Treasurer Richardson Dilworth for governor; Allegheny County Judge Michael A. Musmano for lieutenant governor and State Sen. Frank W. Ruth for internal affairs secretary. Lackawanna Judge Michael J. Eagen for the Supreme Court and Fayette County Judge Roy I. Carson for the Superior bench.

Myers, Ruth and the appellate court candidates were unopposed in the balloting.

"Our conversations have concentrated on the general international situation, Chinese representation in the United Nations and the so-called 'cold war.'

"Among other matters discussed,

I can also mention periodic meetings of the Security Council and the control of atomic energy.

"The talks and exchanges of

What Would You Like To Know?

There doubtless are many people who would like information about funeral service but hesitate to ask. Some seem to think that their request would not be in good taste.

It is entirely proper to ask for such information. There is every reason why you should have all the facts about a service that is so important to every family. We invite inquiry. It leads to mutual understanding.

HOW TO HELP BUSINESS

Practically nobody would deny that the national economy would be sounder and stronger if the country had more small business—if only because more business of any kind would help. So President Truman could count on a sympathetic hearing for his message on aiding small business when he sent it up to Congress.

It is desirable, as he says, to create conditions that will make it possible for a small concern to get started—and then put itself on a stable foundation. Many small businesses mean healthy competition, new jobs, and an assurance of equal economic opportunity to young people ambitious to make their own way.

And it's true, as he also said, that the present economic climate is not too favorable to small business. The "traditional sources" of venture capital—personal savings and community banks—aren't meeting the need. The President noted that savings are "ample" but they just aren't going into small business. Enterprisers also find that bank loans, on terms that fit their needs are difficult to obtain. Mr. Truman, never at a loss for ideas, suggests a five-point solution to the problem.

His plan would have the government insure small business bank loans up to $25,000. Government-chartered but privately-owned "national investment companies" would provide equity capital and long-term loans. The RFC would be given broader lending powers, the Department of Commerce would gather and collect information helpful to small business, and the whole program would be under the Secretary of Commerce.

President Truman says all this would cost little and yield much. But it would certainly expand the functions and powers of the federal government, whatever the cost, and would tend to make small business men dependent on government even in their economic independence. The sensible approach to this problem would be to seek its causes and deal with them instead of the symptoms. Why aren't people taking risks as they once did? How can they be induced to do it again? These questions should be answered.

Some of the answers are already obvious. Less federal spending would mean lower taxes, which would mean that an investor could keep a bigger part of a profit representing risk. Balanced budgets would remove the fear of inflation. More responsible labor leadership could simplify management's problems somewhat. Real achievement in these directions could do a great deal to make government aid to small business unnecessary.

1950 U. S. SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN

The 1950 Savings Bond Independence Drive launched with rich pageantry at Independence Square, Philadelphia, should remind all Americans, of the twofold opportunity that is theirs.

They can, by the purchase of Series E bonds, come to the assistance of their Government in its struggle to preserve the liberties of free men the world over. Doing so they can increase their personal security—or that of their families—by the accumulation of a financial nest egg which may serve them in any future emergency.

For many citizens the latter reason will be the compelling one. Thousands who participated in earlier bond drives already are finding their ownership of these securities a source of comfort. For them the sharp edge of anxieties concerning economic trends over which they have little control has been blunted.

Other thousands have found their bonds a blessing when suddenly confronted with unanticipated medical bills for the care of a sick child or other sudden reversal of their programs for financial independence. Still others are now redeeming matured bonds and reinvesting their original stake, along with the increment added by interest, in the same securities.

For all of these groups there will be little difficulty in "selling" the idea of the 1950 Drive, through which it is hoped to raise $653,950,000 by July 4. These men and women recognize U. S. Savings Bonds for what they are—safe investments earning worthwhile interest which are as convenient for individuals whose savings amount to only a few dollars a week as to those with larger incomes.

The campaign, we believe, should be directed primarily toward those who, until now, have failed to buy bonds—either because of inability to save or unfamiliarity with the operation of the Treasury Department's savings Bond plan.

The most effective salesmen will be those men and women who already own Savings Bonds and are systematically increasing their holdings.

A Canadian was given medical treatment after a fish bit his finger when he thrust his hand into the water. What a man story that fish has to tell!

A research group is trying to find out what a hang-over really is. That's just like scientists—diligently seeking out something that everyone else hopes to void.

Setback For Communist Ambitions

A heavy setback for communist ambitions in the middle east was recorded in the Turkish elections which turned one government out of power in favor of another equally if not more hostile to the Kremlin.

Turkey accepted American aid with alacrity in recognition of its dangerously exposed position.

The arrangements made for shipment of arms and ammunition, plus expert United States military advice in the planning of an overall defense strategy, did not take into consideration any political differences.

The Turkish republic, as established by the firm hand of the late Kemal Ataturk and perpetuated by his successor Inonu, is a more or less monolithic structure unlikely to be affected greatly by any election, even one as startling in its outcome as that which took place on Sunday.

There is no communism as such among the Turks. The party is outlawed. Charges were made in campaign speeches that red infiltration has taken place in the so-called Nation party. These served merely to eliminate the group as a potent factor for now or in the future.

Moscow's reaction to the balloting is eagerly awaited. It seems certain, however, that the Kremlin can voice nothing but disappointment and charge again that Turkey has been bought by the alleged imperialistic warmongers of the west. Turkey's mere proof of its own stability is precisely the reverse of what communism might have desired.

Considerable Pressure

Considerable pressure has been brought to bear on Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery and other western defense administrators in this regard.

The French government, seriously concerned over its own north African holdings should trouble develop at the Dardanelles and spread westward, is understood to be backing the Turkish defense idea.

Apparently no definite steps were taken during the recent big three foreign ministers' meeting in London. But the matter very well may be brought up this week while the 12 Atlantic pact nations are reviewing the whole strategic situation in the British capital.

The Turks are in an extremely vulnerable position despite the fact that the whole strength of allied might is arranged behind them in event of emergency.

Western Turkey—that is Turkey in Europe—is defendable with the assistance that has been given by the United States and with the help of British naval strength that could be brought to bear from Alexandria, Suez and the island of Malta.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PROMOTION PROBLEMS ARE NEAR

Around this time of year a great many parents are beginning to have anxiety over the child's progress at school. Will he "pass" and be promoted to the next grade?

In some schools the child is sent on to the next grade more or less regardless of whether he has attained the standard for his grade—wholesale promotion. But the intelligent parent wants to know what this child's chances for future school progress are for.

While we usually are wise to leave it to the school to decide to what grade-level the child shall be assigned for next fall, we feel we should try to do something about the matter.

Unfortunately, parents of the child known to be lagging far behind at school are inclined to charge him with indifference or laziness, to shame, scold and punish him.

Talk With Teacher?

By talking with the teacher, the parent might discover in what special ways this child has learning difficulties and how he might be helped by his parents at home, or by a skillful teacher employed to tutor him for short periods several days a week. Usually such a helper can do far better with the child than can his parents.

There are a good many children who, with proper help from now till school vacation begins, could make tremendous improvement. Others, who also might profit from such help, may be so far in arrears as not to be able to make the gains expected. Even so, the advantage won for their future success may be very great.

Always we must try to use our heads, be reasonable and have the child's progress in mind.

Sometimes the child's trouble is with a single subject, especially reading. Now reading is basic in all subjects beyond the first few grades. As a rule, the child who fails in history, geography, science and the like, fails to read well enough to learn from his books in these subjects. (My home help bulletins in reading, spelling and arithmetic, also my bulletin "Tips for Students," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

Psychologist At School

If there is a psychologist or a reading expert or both at school, seek help from them. Otherwise get from your school principal the name of reliable experts in these fields. You shall be professionally safe also if you got in touch with the psychology department of your nearest college or university.

In many cases it may be necessary to persuade or require the child to be home on nights before school and go at his homework in a systematic manner. But we must remember that his going through such forms of regularity won't guarantee efficient study.

The husband, says a dietitian, should prepare at least one meal a week. However, the family is bound to get tired of a once-a-week meal of ham sandwich and glass of water.

Folks Of Fame

John Stuart Mill was a noted English philosopher and economist, born in London May 20, 1806, educated by his father, and taught the Greek alphabet when only three years old! His reading of the Greek classics and English history at an early age, was astonishing. From May, 1820, to July, 1821, he was in France, and extracts from his diary show how methodically he studied chemistry, botany, advanced mathematical problems, made notes of the scenery, the people and customs of the country and gaining a thorough acquaintance with the language. He was editor and writer for magazines. His Political Economy was published in 1848; the Dissertations and Discussions in two volumes in 1859. He died at Avignon, France, May 8, 1873.

Elissa Landi, noted actress, was born in Venice Dec. 6, 1904, and educated privately. She made her first stage appearance in Oxford, England, in Dandy Dick. Later she played in The Constant Nymph and as Desdemona in Othello and in other plays. She made her first appearance in New York in 1930 in A Farewell to Arms. Her first films were made in London. She made The Count of Monte Cristo, Great Fortification, Mad Holliday, Thirteenth Chair and Corregidor in the United States. After an absence of five years from the stage, she returned to play The Cherry Orchard, Measure for Measure, The Importance of Being Earnest and They Walk Alone. She wrote her autobiography, Charles Laughton and I, published in 1938. She died in 1948.

What practical use the Army will have for it I don't know . . . in past wars it has not been customary for the enemy to answer the telephone.

But for civilians, gone or going is the day when a man could say "I'm phoning from the office" without a waiter captain being visible over his left shoulder.

All I know is, if the phone rings and a man answers . . . it won't be me.

Now that the election is over . . . thoughts can be turned in other directions . . . and it might be an idea to turn some thought to the opportunity that will be available to all people of the community come this Saturday evening . . . Anyone with three bucks can have a good time . . . a good dinner . . . good fellowship and more than that hear an address by a man of the world . . . General Groves will be in New Castle that evening . . . The Engineers are holding a convention and the General will speak to them . . . but being good citizens of the county the engineers have made it possible for everyone who wishes to attend the Saturday evening dinner meeting and thus have the chance to see and hear the man who knows more about the A-Bombs than any other man in the world. Tickets for this event are on sale at the GNCA office, Castleton Hotel building . . . buy 'em now.

Thursday evening there will be a big event at the Arthur McGill school . . . the PTA members of that school will hold a little old auction . . . if you like home baked goods or want to take a chance of buying a "white elephant" . . . then you won't miss this party. Activities start at seven-thirty . . . in the school auditorium . . . Go and have fun with your friends.

This PTA business seems to have caught on right well this past winter . . . most every school in New Castle has an organization . . . and active ones at that. Regular stated meetings are held and much fine information has been brought to the attention of the parents of the community as well as to the fore for the teachers. Parents and teachers must work together if the children in the schools today are to be made into good American citizens . . . the job of teaching can't all be accomplished by the teachers . . . Don't for a moment forget that.

Soon school will be out for the summer months . . . here is an opportunity for parents to get to know their off-springs better . . . and it is a well worthwhile project to have your children know you well enough to sit down and talk things over . . . Family councils are dandy . . . if Dad and Mother are not too busy playing cards or golf to take the time to foster such meetings.

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Would Jefferson Be Surprised!

CHICAGO, May 17—This is the city of spectacles. It is where the bread and circuses of latter day big-time politics come into full and fantastic flower.

Some of us remember when President Roosevelt came here during his campaign for re-election in the fall of 1936. Big Ed Kelly was both mayor and boss. He set out to put on the greatest political show the country had ever seen and he just about succeeded.

Roosevelt paraded in the evening to the stadium. The vast crowd overflowed from the curbs into the streets to the dismay of the Secret Service. Around the stadium at least a hundred thousand people were massed in the weird light of great magnesium flares while hundreds of bombs burst in the air overhead as the President arrived.

Took All His Skill

The deafening roar of the crowd both outside and inside the packed hall startled even that master of crowds, FDR. It took all his skill to hold the howling mass into a semblance of an audience to hear his prepared speech.

The current spectacle is of a different order. It is more stage-managed, more contrived, with a "non-political" gloss. The Democrats feel they have put over something pretty clever in this show that has caught national attention.

What makes the Republicans in Chicago hopping mad is that most of the cost of this big political rally—for that is what it is—has been taken on by something called the Chicago Host Committee. The committee is made up of Democrats and Republicans who are being asked to contribute up to $150,000 to put on the show.

Not Deductible

What makes the Republicans even madder is that the Treasury in Washington has issued a ruling to the effect that contributions to the committee are deductible as business expense from income reported for taxes. That is, they are deductible for those such as hotel and restaurant owners who expect to make a profit from the crowd. For, of course, there is financial as well as political profit in bread and circuses.

The Republicans insist the cost of this spectacle is at least $50,000. The Democrats reply that besides the $100,000 to $150,000 contributed by the host group, the Democratic committee will not spend more than $50,000.

If the latter is the true cost, then this climax to the President's Western tour is a bargain. It gets out the crowd, it gives them entertainment. The galaxy of Governors here for the series of Democratic conferences serves to advertise the triumphs of the party.

Say Trip Successful

Those who went along on the Presidential train, both officials and most reporters, say the trip was successful. By this we mean that large numbers of people turned out who seemed friendly and responsive. What it really signifies, those who remember 1948 and the debacle of the political prophets hesitate to say.

The general belief of the men around the President is that the McCarthy business has not hurt Truman himself. Secretary Acheson may have been hurt and it may have harmed certain Democratic members of Congress running for re-election. But in this hopeful view the President has the same symbol value—a homely, unpretentious man who is trying to do his best for all the people.

Production Of Meat Higher

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—The agriculture department announces that world production of meat in 1949 was five per cent higher than in 1948.

The department says meats of all types produced last year totaled almost 68½ billion pounds. Meat produced in the far east is not included.

Last year's world meat output edged up 3½ billion pounds, or five per cent, from the 65 billion produced a year earlier, the department reports.

Although the report is only a preliminary one, the department says it looks like a real record high in world production.

An increase in meat output in all continents, except in the middle east and South America, is attributed to an improved grazing and feed situation. Larger numbers of livestock on the world's

U. S. meat production last year was about 21 billion pounds, slightly larger than in 1948 and 35 per cent greater than the latest 10 year average, according to department figures.

The department regrets to say that only a limited amount of information is coming out of the Soviet Union, but according to news that does leak out, it looks like Russia is slowly climbing back to pre-war production of slightly more than seven billion pounds.

Mrs. Mary DeMatteo, 55, of 1108 Dewey avenue, was struck by an auto driven by Joseph Bullano, 718 Monroe street, Tuesday at 11:55 a.m., while crossing Mill street.

She was taken to the New Castle Hospital, where she was treated for injuries to her left wrist and foot. X-ray pictures were taken and later she was discharged.

State Leader Speaks Here

Mr. S. D. Kopelman, State Head Of Council, Is Speaker

An eloquent and inspiring talk by Mrs. Samuel D. Kopelman of Butler, president of the Conference of the Pennsylvania Section of the National Council of Jewish Women climaxed the closing dessert meeting of the New Castle Section of the National Council of Jewish Women held Tuesday evening in the ballroom of The Castle.

A large number of members was present for the President's Day meeting.

The distinguished speaker effectively enumerated council's program—its ultimate aims and ideals—and emphasized the value of each member's working together cooperatively toward the strengthening of the organization. By free thinking and by exercising their individual rights in a democracy, American-Jewish women can develop their own potentialities and contribute to good will and the betterment of community life. The importance of the function of individuals in group life must be clearly recognized.

Education, self-understanding and free thinking facilitate the path to a more united organization. The women have a tremendous opportunity to work together for good not only in their own communities, but throughout the world.

Preceding the excellent address, the assemblage joined in song to pay tribute to the speaker's birthday anniversary. The appropriate birthday lyrics were composed by Mrs. Maurie Schoenberger. Mrs. James Meyers accompanied at the piano.

Dessert was served at attractively arranged tables. White candles in sterling silver candelabra and a colorful bouquet of spring flowers highlighted the appointments at the speaker's table. Mrs. Julius Markley offered prayer. Mrs. Meyer Rosenberg and her committee were responsible for the table decorations.

Extends Greetings
Mrs. Alex Samuels, retiring president, extended greetings and presided over a brief business meeting. Mrs. Samuels gave the annual president's report, listing the accomplishments of the past year. She thanked her officers for their loyalty and cooperation and she in turn was commended for her excellent service as president of the New Castle Section of the National Council of Jewish Women. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Sol Weiner.

Mrs. Ted Marin capably presided in the role of toastmistress for the evening. Representing the members she expressed appreciation to the past presidents of the organization.

Mrs. Sherman Samuels delighted the group with her lovely renditions of vocal selections, "The Song Is You" by Jerome Kern, "So In Love" by Cole Porter and "All The Things You Are" by Jerome Kern.

Mrs. Samuels presented the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Myron Milbauer, who spoke to the group and named the following committee chairmen to serve: budget, Mrs. Ralph Friedman; calendar, Mrs. Louis Sandler; personal interest, Mrs. Morton Lowe; telephone, Mrs. Alec Samuels; fine arts, Mrs. Gus Slovensky; overseas, Mrs. Jules Cobb; hospitality, Mrs. Jack Schwartz; publicity, Mrs. Sam Schwartz; international relations and peace, Mrs. Mont Blau; contemporary Jewish affairs, Mrs. Elijah Kaplan; social legislation, Mrs. Lawrence Horlick; council corner, Mrs. Joseph Solomon; service to foreign born, Mrs. Stanley Kraus; community welfare, Mrs. Irwin Rosen; community cooperation, Mrs. Sam Rosen; scholarship, Mrs. Louis Kohn; nominations, Mrs. Julius Markley; historian, Mrs. Stanley Toll.

Mrs. Kopelman installed the new officers. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Kopelman and Mrs. Samuels who each in turn responded graciously.

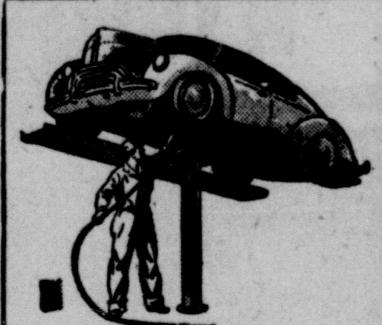

Mrs. Myers accompanied the group at the piano in singing the closing council hymn.

Home Residents Have Mothers Day Program

Residents of the Lawrence County Home enjoyed a very fitting and appropriate Mother's Day program, Tuesday evening, May 16 under the chaplaincy of the Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti. Mrs. Sulmonetti and daughter Ethna played several piano duets at the beginning of the service.

The Mother's Day message was brought by Pastor Sulmonetti on the subject: "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother". Vocal selections "Mother's Bible" and "Those Golden Bells" were rendered by Ethna Sulmonetti.

The chaplain presented to the home a very useful and musical article—a Victrola with many records. The residents were much pleased and radiant with joy when several of the records were played for them.

Mrs. O. Bolinger, superintendent of the Home, expressed her appreciation and joy over receiving the same, knowing that it would be a valuable asset, especially to the shut-ins. The service closed with a beautiful Mother's Day prayer written by the chaplain with the entire congregation joining in reciting it.

Richmond, Va., in 1742, is said to have been the site of the first fair in America.

Kenneth G. Palmer who is presently residing on an island in San Francisco Bay, the island known as Alcatraz believes Lawrence county has no right to indict him for nearly killing Police Chief Ernest Hartman of Ellwood City.

Palmer was one of the men who robbed the Volant bank back in 1941. On September 25, 1941, Chief Hartman came upon Palmer and a pal in the early morning. A gun battle ensued in which Hartman was nearly killed. Bravely he bat it out with the yeggs, killing one. Palmer was captured and indicted for attempt to kill.

The Federal government wanted him for the Volant bank job and he was turned over to the Feds, the indictment here being returned as a true bill although Palmer was in the hands of the Feds.

He was convicted in the Federal court and has been enjoying the hospitality of "The Rock" for a number of years. Apparently he is nearing the end of his term for he has appealed to quash the local indictment.

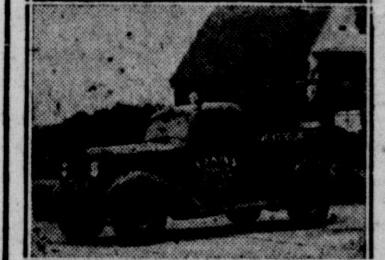

His argument is that Pennsylvania lost its rights to indict him when it turned him over to the Federal authorities. He is acting as his own lawyer.

SOCIETY & CLUBS

MISS NANCY LEHMAN NAMES ATTENDANTS

Miss Nancy Lehman, bride-elect of June 10, has chosen the attendants for her marriage to Benedict Brown. Vows will be exchanged at an "open church" wedding in St. Mary's church at 10 o'clock. Miss Lehman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Lehman of Thorpe street, and Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown of Grove City, Pa.

She has chosen her sister, Miss Lorena Lehman, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Carl Oswald and Miss Bertha Valley as bridesmaids.

Robert Brown will serve his brother as best man, while Emile Brown, an uncle, and George Va-sick, a cousin, will act as ushers.

Continuing in a series of showers, Miss Lehman was honored Monday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John F. Otto, Boyles avenue. Co-hostesses were her aunts, Mrs. R. V. Flavion of Thorpe street and Mrs. E. R. Mitchell of West Middlesex.

The early evening hours were spent in compiling a memory book for the bride-to-be.

A delicious luncheon was served at a table cleverly decorated in pink and green, with a centerpiece of lovely sweet peas. A miniature watering-can was suspended above the table, from which pink and green ribbon streamers cascaded to place cards. To each card was attached a glass vase lapel pin, holding a small spray of sweet peas.

The guest of honor was showered with an array of lovely and useful gifts, which had been concealed during the evening beneath a large pink and green umbrella.

Mrs. Charles J. Brown of Grove City was a special guest.

Orders Placed For 10,000 Freight Cars By Penna. R.R.

NEW YORK, May 17.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania railroad announced that it has placed orders for 10,000 freight cars, the largest single order placed with outside car builders in more than 25 years. Walter S. Franklin, president of the Pennsylvania, said the railroad will obtain use of the cars under the new rental program. This will involve a definite commitment as to future payments which will be in excess of $50,000 for a period of 15 years. The Pennsylvania orders call for 5,000 box cars and 5,000 gondolas.

Although Franklin did not disclose the names of the car builders, trade sources listed them as follows:

Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing company, 3,000 gondolas. Bethlehem Steel company, 2,000 gondolas.

Pressed Steel Car company, 2,000 box cars.

American Car and Foundry company, 1,500 box cars.

General American Transportation Corporation, 1,000 box cars. Greenville Steel Car company, 500 box cars.

Rinascenza Lodge Presents Program

Members of the Rinascenza Lodge No. 19 observed their Mother's Day program Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Mabel Mastrangelo opening with God Bless America.

Mrs. Lucy DeCaprio, president of the Chapter of Youth, was the mistress of ceremonies. She gave an interesting talk on Mothers.

Mrs. Mary, as the principal speaker of the afternoon, stated that mothers, living or dead, should not be forgotten. Her talk was well received.

Mrs. Mastrangelo sang "Mama," accompanied by Regina Owoc. Others who followed on the program included: Michael Carvello, vocal selections; Mary and Shirley Williams, soft shoe tap dance; Mary Lou Fornata, piano selections; Jack Fulena, accordionist, played several numbers. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fulena. Lois Fornata and Josephine Marecola also sang, and the Williams girls again favored with a dance. Miss Peggy DiStefano was another vocalist on the program. A duet was sung by Michael Carvello and Mrs. Mabel Mastrangelo.

Music by Frank Restivo followed. Before closing, Mrs. Edda Matrangi presented flowers to all mothers of the lodge.

Due credit was given by Mrs. DeCaprio to Mrs. Conti, Mrs. Mastrangelo and Frank Restivo for their help in the program arrangements.

The dice game known as "craps" was introduced to America in 1813 from France, where the game was called "hazard."

Around HollywoodBy FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 17.—Let's visit some movie sets today! A big rugged guy on the set of "Panther Moon" out at Universal International is slowly going nuts. His name is Corson (Whitey) Jowett. He has been a movie "round-mine" for 20 years, since he fled to Hollywood from Boston. But he never had problems like this.

The cast of "Panther Moon", consisting of the most polyglot assortment of players, brought together in recent years, has been told to make with the accent. The film deals with espionage and intrigue in Europe.

Duff Only Yankee

Only Yankee in the cast is Howard Duff. Martha Toren is a Swede. Philip Dorn is from Holland. Kurt Krueger was born in Switzerland. Walter Slezak came from Austria and Philip Friend and Robert Douglas began their lives in Britain.

The scene opens, with all hands pouring on the accent, but soundmixer Whitey Jowett cannot understand them. Again and again the scene is tried.

Jowett, whose job is to listen to all sounds that go on film sound tracks, finally takes off his headphones and says:

"I might as well be listening to a broadcast from the United Nations when the air is full of static. Now all of you start over—only talk as though you were portraying an American."

The scene is "shot" again—and the accents are perfect.

STEWART REMINISCES

On the stage next-door, between scenes for "Harvey", Jimmy Stewart is reminiscing about the season he portrayed Elwood Down on Broadway, same role he is playing in the screen version of the play. "Saturday matinees were horrors," says Jimmy. "No matter how much publicity the play got about an invisible rabbit, doting mothers from all over New York would park their offspring in front row seats for the matinees and leave them there, after telling the kids to 'be sure to watch for the rabbit'."

"By the end of the second act the kids were tired of scenery and the actors and were making clearly audible cracks about 'what kind of a play is this—where the heck is Harvey?'

WATCH OUT FOR CURVES

Over at Paramount, we catch Mona Freeman ready to play her big dramatic scene in "Branded". She wears a white evening gown that shows all her curves.

Director Rudy Mate yells for action". Alan Ladd knocks on a door. Mona opens it—and nearly busts buttons off her gown by laughing.

Ladd is wearing a ten-gallon hat backwards, a red bow around his neck and smoking a two-foot jumbo cigar.

Everybody in the picture has been working under tension to keep on schedule. The gag helps.

Other Kind Of News Stories

NEW YORK, May 17.—(INS)—The most frequent complaint heard by the journeyman newspaper reporter concerning his craft is the familiar charge that newspapers are preoccupied with blood and thunder, crime, greed and sensationalism.

Virtue is its own reward in the newspapers, our critics cry. We overlook the good, the true and the beautiful in favor of violence, they add. And finally, in our pursuit of villainy, we have not time for ordinary, humdrum kind hearts and gentle people.

Different Kind Of Stories

So today I would like to deal with some kind hearts and gentle people who have been in the news recently. Two of the most touching love stories I have ever read managed to get space in the prints not so long ago. They didn't get much space, maybe, but they did get it.

Both stories were brief, and both more notable for what was left unsaid than what was written.

First, there was the gallant story of the old man in his mid-seventies, who deliberately threw himself under the family automobile—in which his wife was seated—to prevent the car rolling backward over a steep embankment.

The only thing he could do was attempt to stop the car with his own body. He threw himself in the path of the auto. The rear wheels rolled over the living barrier. But when the front wheels hit his flesh, they miraculously held.

More miraculously, the old man escaped with only minor injuries.

The movies, I'm afraid, will never lift this plot. Hollywood is too busy planning the life story of Rita Hayworth, crowned by her inspiring love affair with Aly Kahn.

Other Touching Story

Nor in all probability will the cinema, so bewitched by the betrothal of Bergman and Rossellini, care to lift from the newspapers the other touching love story of the middle-aged man who, when he and his wife were held up at gun point by hoodlums, told the hoods to shoot him and not his wife.

The hooligans obligingly shot the husband. But the story has a happy ending: the wounds were not fatal.

It has made me feel good for weeks just to know of such abiding love, kind hearts and decent people. And last week I saw dozens of kind hearts and generous people frantically working against times to save the life of an obscure man in Brooklyn whose sad fate was followed by millions around the world.

Death freed Dominick Atteo before his fellow men could release him, but not because they had not tried—and desperately—to save him.

The yellow brick garage where Atteo was trapped in the well he

Boy Breaks Legs Sixteen Times Has Bone Disease

NEW YORK, May 17.—(INS)—Three-year-old Richard Dorwart, who has broken his legs 16 times and his arms four times, was in New York from Los Angeles for treatment of a rare bone disease.

Dickie arrived yesterday by plane, accompanied by his father, Maurice, and mother, Irene. He is in a specially constructed pulley apparatus that suspends both his fractured legs above his head.

"I don't know if we have enough money for his treatments," the mother said, while Dickie played with a rag doll and smiled. "All I could think of was to get here. I have prayed God and I know he will help my boy."

Calcium deficiency is blamed for Dickie's condition. The mother communicated with Dr. Edwin J. Grace, of the Grace Clinic, Brooklyn, who wrote back about reservation of the disease being conducted at the Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn.

Without waiting to make reservations with the clinic, the Dorwarts flew to New York. An appointment was made for today.

Cookie Sales Raise Fund For Girl Scouts

Mrs. Frank P. Bower, Cookie Sale Chairman for the sale just completed by the Girl Scouts and Leaders of the New Castle area is very proud of the results of this year's effort. Girl Scouts sold 13,840 boxes of Girl Scout cookies. This is twice as many boxes as were sold last year.

The sale is a Community Chest approved activity. Its purposes are many. It is the one way the Girl Scouts have of raising money for camp needs. Community Chest funds are used only for operating expenses. Equipment such as needed for camping and to carry out Girl Scout camp program must be financed in this way. The sale also provided means for the troops to raise funds for individual troop activities and troop profits are expended by the troops on vote of the girls. Special trips are often taken care of this way.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT

There are so many wonderful new things to learn and do at a Girl Scout camp that it is no wonder that it takes a big book to list all the possibilities. Even Brownie Scouts go to camp.

Community Service The Annual Cookie Sale is also a community service. It promotes a good relationship between the Girl Scouts of the community and friends of Scouting, new and old.

NEW CASTLE, PA., NEWS, WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1950

It provides an opportunity for training in financing, trustworthiness, courtesy, and develops poise and assurance in the girls. It brings to the public an article of reliable quality and is another way of developing the girls who are the future buyers of tomorrow.

This year part of the profits to the Council will be put into "field kitchen" and thus go right back to the girl who helped by selling cookies. It is hoped each unit will have use of such a kitchen. The design for the carrier follows very generally the plan worked out for the use of our armed forces. It will be a weather proof box which can readily be converted to a work table and small tool shop. It will contain cooking utensils and needs necessary to outdoor fires, cook at least one meal per day in the open, and use the other equipment in carrying on outdoor programs.

The Girl Scouts wish to thank all their patrons for supporting their sale and thus helping them to help themselves toward a broader and better camp program.

Noted Speaker To Be Heard At Convention

Featuring the two-day convention of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, which begins next Friday at The Castleton, will be the concluding banquet at the Cathedral on Saturday at 6:30 p.m. when General Leslie R. Groves will deliver the principal address. Because of the importance of the occasion, the Convention Committee is extending an open invitation to the citizens of Lawrence county to share this privilege with them. Tickets are available at the offices of the Greater New Castle up until Thursday, or may be secured from any engineer member of the society.

General Groves has had a long and interesting military career, beginning with his commission as a second lieutenant in the corps of engineers in 1918. He served with distinction in Europe, Hawaii, and in Nicaragua on special assignments. Promoted to captain in 1934, and attained his majority in 1940. He was selected over thousands of his seniors for the rank of full colonel in November, 1940, and became chief of construction of the corps of engineers. Here he directed all military construction operations within the United States, including all camps, ordnance plants, port depots and the Pentagon building.

Headed Big Project
In the fall of 1942, when our government undertook atomic research in earnest, Colonel Groves was promoted to the rank of brigadier general and placed in charge of and given complete responsibility for every phase of the enormous project which he named the Manhattan Engineer District. Less than three years later, the world's first atomic bomb exploded in New Mexico—and a few days later the war was over. After V-J Day, General Groves continued to be in complete charge of the atomic bomb project under the general direction of the secretary of war until January 1, 1947, when he turned over all of his responsibilities to the newly established Atomic Energy Commission.

General Groves was promoted to the rank of major general on March 9, 1944, and to lieutenant general on January 24, 1948. His decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Merit. Nicaragua conferred on him the Presidential Medal of Merit; Belgium made him a Commander, Order of the Crown, and Britain enrolled him as an Honorary Companion, Most Honorable Order of the Bath. He has received honorary doctorates from the University of California, and Lafayette, Williams and Hobart colleges.

STRIKE IS ENDED

Fifty-three buses and taxicabs ceased running because of the strike.

Extradition between states was established by the New England Confederacy of 1643.

Plan Air-Raid Warning Posts

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—(INS)—A call was sent out for recruiting 13,794 men and women for 627 air-raid warning posts throughout Pennsylvania as the initial step in embarking on a state civilian defense program.

Judge Vincent A. Carroll of Philadelphia, chairman of the civil defense committee, and Col. Lewis F. Acker, state civil defense executive, said the observation posts are spotted about every eight miles.

They pointed out that ground observers are needed due to technical deficiencies in radar warning, including unfavorable conditions and mountainous topography.

The announcement explained that reports from observation posts will be telephoned to two "filter centers" in Harrisburg and Pittsburgh which will be organized by the air force.

The filter centers would chart the plane's direction and flash the information to the air defense control office of the continental air command at Mitchel field to alert interceptor fighters or anti-aircraft defenses, according to the plan.

County defense coordinators were urged to seek permanent volunteers "so as to insure readiness for quick call to regular part-time volunteer service in any emergency."

Council Of Churches Has Yearly Election

Opening with a dinner meeting Monday evening in the Third United Presbyterian church, members of the New Castle Council of Churches annual business session and election of officers were held at the meeting.

During the election of officers the following were named to serve during the year: president, Worrall M. Jones; vice president, Austin A. Webb; Mrs. Martha McCreary, Rev. J. L. McFarland; treasurer, William Bowman; recording secretary, Emma Patton; corresponding secretary, Miss Sarah Mancher.

On the agenda of the evening was the amending of the constitution and the planning of next year's program. President Jones enumerated the value of the Council of churches in his report.

He stated that the New Castle Council has been in existence for several years but many churches have not supported the organization because they have not seen the value of it. He pointed out that the churches need a central organization within the community. He urged cooperation with the central body to make the church a more effective witness to the world. Working with the council will aid in a community evangelistic campaign, it was pointed out.

The next meeting of the council is planned for June 19.

In most instances, of course, the actual truth was somewhere between the extremes. But it is important that there were such differences. In many instances parents were acting on or felt they should be acting on what they thought they knew about children. Naturally, many conflicts arose when they didn't have the facts.

Perhaps we parents don't always know what we're talking about when we say, "I wish you were as neat and polite as other children." It's quite possible that our youngster not only comes up to average but surpasses it. Often we expect behavior that really isn't childlike. It's a good idea to try to be reasonably certain "we know what we are talking about." Such knowledge won't take care of all situations, but it will help us be a little wiser in what we do and say.

Seaweed To Medicine

IODINE was discovered in 1811 by Bernard Courtois, a French chemist. It is obtained from seaweed, burned at a low temperature, which forms into heavy blackish scales with a violet lustre, giving it a metallic appearance. A solution of these ashes of seaweed, or kelp, make the iodine antiseptic so commonly known today. Used on external injuries as a counter irritant, it has strong antiseptic qualities. Although the medicine is poisonous when taken internally, minute proportions of it are found in many foods and are essential to health.

Is your medicine chest up to date? Keep poisonous remedies out of reach of children. Keep only recently filled prescriptions. Keep a complete first-aid kit. Call your doctor at the first sign of illness.

U.S. Troops In Japan Start Special Task

By JOHN RICH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CAMP MCGILL, Japan, May 17.—American troops in Japan are launched upon a three-month program of intensive training for overseas landing operations.

High-ranking U. S. army, navy and air force officers attended the opening exercises at Camp McGill.

The program is designed to give at least one battalion of each American army division in Japan special training in amphibious warfare.

Maj. Gen. E. M. Almond, chief of staff to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, told the initial class of trainees:

"You are all familiar with the situation in the world today which punctuates the special importance of doing your job well."

Has More Experience

He assured the men of Gen. MacArthur's "interest in and unqualified support" of the training program. Gen. Almond pointed out that Gen. MacArthur "has more experience, over a longer period, of amphibious warfare than any other commander in the army."

He said he would "try to get him (MacArthur) here to see you land" when the first class of trainees graduates in June.

Gen. Almond emphasized that recent maneuvers of the American armed forces demonstrated that the atomic bomb "has not dis-

Widow Of Goering Seeks To Get Castle In Austria

By MARVIN STONE
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

VIENNA, May 17.—Emmy Goering, widow of the looted Nazi reichsmarshal, is trying to get her hands on a little place she would like to call home.

It is one of the trinkets Hermann Goering "owned" but overlooked—a full-sized medieval castle in Austria that a wealthy female admirer bequeathed him in her will.

Emmy, who calls Bavaria her present home, is pressing a lawsuit in a provincial Austrian court to gain control of the fabulous castle of Mauterndorf, near Salzburg.

She has lots of competition, though. Three other parties, including the Austrian government, claim full rights to it. The Catholic diocese of Salzburg says the furnishings, at least, belong to the church.

So far, the tussle has filled 4,800 pages of records in tiny St. Michael's court.

How It Started

It all started this way: When German noblewoman Elizabeth Von Eppenstein died in 1939 she willed Castle Mauterndorf to her good friend Goering as a token of her esteem.

During her lifetime she had presented him with another castle—Feldenstein—where much of the Nazis' loot later was uncovered.

As the record bears out, 1939 was a busy year for the marshal. He informed the administrators of the estate he was glad to hear of the inheritance but much too of the Nazi leader, claim the property outright.

Never Accepted?

Dr. Franz Hausa, of Vienna, attorney for a group of brothers and nieces of Elizabeth Von Eppenstein, asserts that Goering never formally accepted the donation.

"According to Austrian laws," he said, "the will never was carried out. The castle is the property of my clients."

The Austrian government is anxious to have the property declared legally Goering's. Under the provision of the restitution laws the government feels it would have the right to confiscate it.

And the executor of the will, Colonel Mez-Randa claims 1½ million schillings—or the castle itself—for his labor in administering the property since 1939.

The Catholic church feels that the valuable 18th century furnishings of the castle have always been church property, no matter who gets the castle.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Thrift and patriotism are qualities that have contributed much to the growth and strength of the United States.

To invest a part of one's income, regularly, in United States Savings bonds is both thrifty and patriotic, for it assures a generous financial return to the purchaser and helps our great nation.

Chest Leaders Plan Campaign

October, the Community Chest campaign month, may seem like a long way off to most people but to Homer Choate it's just around the corner.

Mr. Choate, recently appointed campaign chairman for 1950, is already making important fund drive arrangements.

Tuesday night the chairman called the first organization meeting at the Castleton. Fifteen attended.

The purpose of the session was to discuss last year's campaign and to devise ways of strengthening this year's drive. The discussion lasted about two hours. Many of the key personnel from the drive of last year were on hand to help the various chairman who have been appointed to take charge this year.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Choate thanked all persons for attending and for the constructive ideas presented.

He urged all people to consider the year around work of the Red Feather agencies and their importance in this area.

A GOOD FIGHT

Most people like to see a fight. It may be a chicken fight or a dog fight or a prize fight or a political fight.

Health workers are fighters. They fight disease. Sometimes the disease gets the best of them too.

Many hard battles are fought but many are prevented. Smallpox used to be a tough opponent.

Vaccination has changed things. Many battles have been prevented.

Children should be protected as much as possible.

The family doctor will give good advice about these things.

Senators Sweep Youngstown Series, Pad League Lead

Stanley Zedalis Pitches Steady 6-2 Victory Over Rivals, Kiel Blasts Homer

New Castle's fiery Senators enjoy the Middle-Atlantic league lead today by a game and half over the wolf-pack.

With the season now 12 days old, the Senators have the lead by virtue of sweeping the Youngstown three-game series, of two out of three from Erie, one from Johnstown and two out of three from Vandegrift.

Zedalis Turns In Second Win

Last night at Flaherty Memorial Field young Stanley Zedalis, pitched his heart out with his young wife and baby son looking on in the stands, defeating Youngstown 6 to 2 on a steady seven-hitter that found the Orlando, Florida boy no more perturbed than Rockfeller losing a dollar bill.

It was the second win for Zedalis against one defeat, that heart-breaker 2 to 1 game at Erie last Friday. The tall blond right-hander was never in trouble and even a homer by Shine Richardson in the eighth inning failed to ruffle him. He fanned eight and walked five.

Herman Kiel Blasts Number 3

Zedalis had plenty of hitting support from his mates, including a tremendous home-run smash by the veteran Herman Kiel in the fourth with Dondero aboard, his third of the current campaign. It sailed far over the left-field wall. Bilo had three for three, Horne two for two.

The Senators left New Castle early this morning by bus for Niagara Falls, N.Y., for a three-game series, before returning here Saturday for a double-header, with the runner-up Butler Tigers club. The first game Saturday will start at 7 o'clock.

Pfeiffer Is Chased

New Castle made the short stay of Al Pfeiffer, the Youngstown starting pitcher on the mound a very unhappy one, finding the Stanton, Va., boy for four runs and five hits in one and 2/3 innings before Bill Winter of Lakewood O., could come in. Mr. Winter gave up two runs and three hits over the next five and 1/3 innings then was lifted for a pinch-hitter and Heiser finished. Pfeiffer was the loser.

The Senators gave Zedalis great batting support with 10 bingles Bilo and Horne leading the hit parade with five between them while Kiel's homer was his only hit.

Bilo opened the game by doubling to right field, Al Mouton flied to Singleton, Bilo raced home as Lavigne allowed Danny Dondero's smash to get through him at short.

Get Two Runs Donated

In the second inning, the Senators put together four hits, for three runs. Tommy Famiglietti opened with a single to left, Johnny Vizzini followed suit to center field "Fam" going to third, Horne walked, Eikenberg and Zedalis fanned and it looked as if the rally was over but with the socks loaded." Richardson, the Youngstown catcher doubled New Castle two runs by throwing the ball way in an attempted pickup at third, "Fam" and Vizzini tallying and Horne came home a few

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

CLEM GENERAL, who, several decades ago, was one of the tri-state best baseball players, is back home for several months, after spending eight years in sun-kissed, and some times, chilly Florida. Since he departed from New Castle, Clem has engaged in construction and agricultural work and, when not engaged in those vocations, engaged in rattlesnake hunting, selling reptiles he caught to Marshall Bishop who has snake farm at Miami. In fact, one of the diamond-backs Clem caught measured seven feet six inches. Had it been eight feet, one inch long, it would have been the biggest rattler yet caught.

"Do you use a forked stick to catch those 'babies'?" Here & There asked.

"No, I catch 'em with my hands," Clem replied.

He explained that one must never let an animal know it is feared.

"You approach the Rattler and reach out wide with your right arm. The snake will turn its head toward your right hand. It is only able to turn its head side-ways. It cannot make its head revolve.

While the snake is watching your right hand, you reach out wide, curve your arm, swoop it downward and grasp the snake behind the head with your left hand, then stamp on its body," he explained.

"Ever been bit?"

"No, I have been lucky, but if you are bit, you always have an antitoxin which you quickly apply," Clem stated.

He said that while he has caught some Rattlers in the Everglades, he caught most of them on stone piles in central and southern Florida.

"Lots of turtles, yes, but few are snakes. Most of them are softshells, but they are fine eating," he reported.

When Clem returns to Florida, some months from now, he says he will engage in frog-raising.

"I have a house and five acres there with the privilege of using a great many more acres for the project," he said.

Elkins Brothers, New Castle heavyweight, is in Germany. Several nights ago he knocked out Heinz Tietze of Berlin in the fourth round of fight scheduled to go eight chapters. Twenty five thousand fans witnessed Brothers win. Several weeks ago Here & There received word Brothers was to go to England. However, he turned up in Germany. It is probable he may box in England before his return. Ernest Black is a Harmonica player. Several nights ago, while at Walther Dewberry's place, he played "Home Sweet Home" without touching his hands on the mouth-organ. . . . While strolling in the woods, Eddie Fritz caught a Flying Squirrel, which he later liberated. . . . Don Thompson, president, City Baseball League, is concerned over criticism by players and fans at umpires in both City and County circuits. "They receive the same pay as paid former umpires, $4, for week day games, and $5.50 for Sunday games," said Thompson. Dan Hartman heads umpires who now control City and County loop games. Taggart stadium should be the mecca of thousands when the Jewish War Vets hold a wrestling carnival in June to raise money with which to buy television sets for wounded boys in Deshon hospital, Butler. . . . One hundred dollar guaranteed final will be held May 20, by the Lawrence County Coon and Fox Hunters association on the Shaffer farm, five miles north of the city. Signs will point the way to the farm which is one-quarter mile off Route 18. No liquor will be allowed on the ground. T. E. Shaffer will be field marshal.

Brooklyn Dodgers Cut Down-Roster

NEW YORK, May 17 (INS)—The Brooklyn Dodgers cut their roster to one above tonight's 25-player deadline by sending three men to their farm teams and placing another on the disabled list.

Pitcher Carl Erskine was sent to Montreal in the International league, Pitcher Clem Labine went to St. Paul in the American association.

Outfielder Bill Antonello was optioned to Hollywood in the Pacific Coast league, all on 24-hour recall.

Pitcher Malcolm Mallette was placed on the disabled list.

The Yankees at least started this season wholly fit. In 1949 Joe DiMaggio was on the bench for the first 65 games and in batting practice before the season opener Charlie Keller pulled a side muscle which necessitated a hasty line-up shift.
